PARENT TIPS

- Start early and call now. Look into services as soon as you know your baby is on the way. Some places have waiting lists.
- Read everything: signs, bulletin boards and pamphlets on early child services in Saginaw. Visit offices for hands-on information and to get to know names of people.
- Know what services you want. Call and ask questions. Have some idea about what services you want.
- Always have paper and pencil before you call. Write down the place, date and name.
- Ask them to repeat information and spell their names. If you leave a message, say your full name and number twice and say it slowly.
- Learn the steps to get the service. Find out what you have to bring for any appointment. Write it down.
- Ask for other phone numbers if the number you called can't help you.
- Be positive, polite and don't give up! Call back if you don't hear from an agency. Ask to talk to the supervisor, if you are being treated with disrespect.
