LIBRARY PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN, TWEENS & TEENS

Ever wanted to learn to juggle? Tacey's Tiptop Juggling Workshop on Saturday, March 3 at 1 p.m. at Zael Library, 3100 N. Center. Entertainer & juggler extraordinaire Joel Tacey will teach you! This program is open to children in 4th grade and up. Joel will also have juggling equipment available for purchase after the workshop for those who want to practice juggling after the workshop.

Come out for the MAGIC SHOW with Baffling Bill on Saturday, March 10 at Butman-Fish Library, 1716 Hancock. There will be two shows, starting at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. This "Magic of Reading" show will feature grand illusions (floating lady, Houdini trunk, sword box, etc.)!

Celebrate Your Name Day on Tuesday, March 13 at 4:30 p.m. at Claytor Library, 1410 N 12th. Who would you be if you didn't have a name? Your name identifies you to the world. Claytor library will be participating in Celebrate Your Name Day. Children will find out what their name means, draw creative name tags and play the "Name Game." There will be a certificate for the most creative drawing. Participants will take home a stringed name bracelet. This program is for children of all ages. Children 3 years of age or younger will need a helper.

Drop-in Wii Games for Teens and Tweens on Wednesday, March 14 at 4 p.m. at Hoyt Library, 505 Janes. Tweens and teens age 11-17 are welcome to drop in after school to play a variety of Wii games in the Hoyt Library auditorium.

Celebrate the life and times of a goldfish with a story, a game, and a craft at "Memoirs of a Goldfish" on Monday, March 19 at 4 p.m. at Wickes Library, 1713 Hess. Enjoy a fishy snack before browsing our collection of underwater tales.

The Public Libraries of Saginaw will provide necessary, reasonable auxiliary aids and services, such as signers for the hearing impaired, to individuals with disabilities. Please contact the Public Libraries of Saginaw to give at least two weeks' advance notice by telephoning 755-9833, using the library's T.D.D. service at 755-9831 or writing the library at 505 Janes, Saginaw, MI 48607.
