Public Libraries of Saginaw’s annual membership meeting

Hoyt, Zauel, and Butman-Fish Libraries are holding special events this May to celebrate the Memorial Cup Tournament. Hoyt will host events on May 28, 30, and 31, while Zauel and Butman-Fish will have events on different dates. The events will include meet-and-greets with players, a special viewing of the tournament’s opening ceremony, and a chance to purchase limited edition memorabilia.

Zauel Friends’ Spring Book Sale
Zauel and Butman-Fish Libraries are hosting a spring book sale from May 8 to May 11. The sale will feature a wide variety of books, including new releases, bestsellers, and classic literature. Attendees can also take part in the library’s annual membership meeting on Tuesday, May 24, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at Butman-Fish Library.
Searching for the Truth About Bigfoot

Trained as a scientist, Gregg Young set out to answer the question—is there enough data to establish whether Bigfoot is real or not? He'll share what he discovered at “How I Came to Believe in Bigfoot” at Butman-Fish on Saturday, May 18 at 2 p.m. During the program, he’ll share what he discovered, and let you come to your own conclusion about the evidence for this famous cryptid’s existence.

Want to explore the mysteries of Bigfoot with us? Please register in advance at www.saginawlibrary.org/events, or call the library at (899) 799-9160.

B-F Explores “What’s the Tea?”

Tea is one of the most storied drinks in history, and today we’re experiencing a new surge of interest.

Join us at “What’s the Tea?” at Butman-Fish on Thursday, May 16 at 5:30 p.m. to learn some of the basics. We’ll be talking about the main types of tea, different methods of brewing, and what experts say about the benefits and drawbacks of tea drinking. We’ll even taste a few more to get your mind going!

For registration or more information about these and other arts & crafts, visit www.saginawlibrary.org/events.

Teddy Bear Yoga Class with Miss Michelle

Bring your favorite teddy bear for Teddy Bear Yoga at Butman-Fish on Saturday, May 18 at 10:30 a.m. This session is aimed at children ages 3-12, but all are welcome.

With your teddy bear at your side, we’ll learn how to breathe and move like a bear. This class is just a small sample of the fun to come! Butman-Fish’s Miss Michelle is studying to become a certified children’s yoga and mindfulness instructor, and this is just the first of the classes she’ll be teaching as she learns.

No registration is needed, but children ages 6 and under will need adult supervision. Please bring comfortable clothing and bring a towel or mat. Each child that attends will receive a free pair of yoga socks to be used for future classes!

More Mindfulness Programs This Month

Adults looking for mindfulness classes have options this month as well. The MSU Extension will be bring back Tai Chi for Arthritis and Fall Prevention to Butman-Fish on Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. this summer. Classes begin Tuesday, May 7. Whether you joined us last year, have experience elsewhere, or are looking to try this practice for the first time, you’re welcome to join us! This program is targeted to help older adults and those at risk for falls, but all adults are welcome. Gain benefits like increased strength, balance and posture. Plus, reduce stress with these gentle movements. Please register at bit.ly/butmantaiichi or contact the library for assistance.

Yoga at Hoyt Library continues this month for teens and adults, with sessions on Thursday, May 9 and May 16 at 5:45 p.m. This is a 60-minute beginner-friendly class that is “slow to ‘no-flow’” and includes seated and standing postures. Please bring a mat and dress in layers to accommodate room temperature. If you use any props for your yoga practice, feel free to bring them. Registration is required and opens one week before each class. Find out more on our website, or call (899) 755-0984.

Help Us Serve You Better

We’re asking adults, ages 18 and up, to take an online survey so we can learn how we can serve you better!

Fill out the Public Libraries of Saginaw’s community survey at https://tinyurl.com/pppl-survey-d by May 10 so we can learn more about what you want and need from your library! En español: https://tinyurl.com/pppl-espanol-d

This project is made possible in part by the University of Michigan School of Information, the Library of Michigan, and the Institute of Museum and Library Services’ Library Services and Technology Act.

May the 4th Be With You at Hoyt

Come celebrate May the 4th at Hoyt! On Saturday, May 4, we will have Star Wars coloring stations in the children’s area, as well as a free showing of Star Wars: Episode VI – Return of the Jedi (1983, PG), in our auditorium at 1 p.m. May the 4th Be With You!
